PHYSICAL LOCATION
PROFILE

• In existence for over 12 years.
• A Chapter with growing membership by the day.
• 70 registered members to date.
• Consistent membership of over 25 media women.
• Board of five members- Chairperson, Vice Chairperson, Treasurer, Secretary and a board member.
• Offered leadership at an International level as President for two terms.
• It can only grow stronger going forward.
• After the Biennial in New Delhi, India—the unveiling of the Gender Mainstreaming Project, carried out two workshops with the support of the International (2015—sharing findings) and 2107 (proposing implementation)

• Regional Workshop/Film festival in Johannesburg, South Africa.

• Screening of the Velvet Revolution mid this year with the support of the International.

• Safety of Women Online—Mapping of TechVaw. (February to July in preparation for the General elections)—KICTANET, Ushahidi Platform, takebackthetech and APC. Members mapped close to 200 cases of harassment of women politicians.

• IAWRT-K carried out research on Women’s Rights Online in Peri-Urban Nairobi, led by Ms. Racheal Nakitare. The research was shared in workshops in Kenya’s main cities of Nairobi (March to coincide with International Women’s Day), Kisumu and Mombasa.

• March this year, 3 members of IAWRT-K attended the CSW in New York, US joining women around the globe to add their voice to women’s agenda.

• Fast forward to the 37th Biennial in Philippines, six members of the Kenyan Chapter are here to join peers from around the world. 3 of those members have sponsored themselves.
Womens Rights Online
Commission on Status of Women (CSW)
SCHOLARSHIPS

• In the past years, our members have contributed to the various IAWRT documentaries, the latest being Reproductive health with the story of Traditional Birth Attendants (TBA’s)

• Last year, two members of the Chapter, i.e. the Secretary and the Vice Chairperson were granted funds. The former is pursuing her PHD, while the latter graduated recently with Masters from the USIU(A).

• Another young member, who has contributed to past activities was also given the scholarship to pursue her Masters in Communication.
CONT.....
VELVET REVOLUTION SCREENING
GENDER MAINSTREAMING WORKSHOP
CONT....
REGIONAL CONFERENCE ON
ETHICAL JOURNALISM AND PROFESSIONALISM
THEME "JOURNALISM FOR DEMOCRACY IN THE DIGITAL AGE"
30TH - 31ST OCTOBER 2017 IN NAIROBI - KENYA
Sponsored by Ethical Journalism Network / FAJ

ETHICAL JOURNALISM NETWORK / FEDERATION OF AFRICAN JOURNALISTS /
KENYA UNION OF JOURNALISTS / IAWRT-KENYA CHAPTER
By Josephine Karani-Chairperson

ASANTE SANA